If you love singing and great music, Singchronicity could be for you. It's a new youth choir for all S1-S6 aged young people and meets on Tuesdays from 4.15 pm to 5.45 pm at Pilrig St Paul's Church, on the junction of Leith Walk and Pilrig Street.

Singchronicity aims to give young people in the Leith area the chance to:

- Get together to make great music
- Meet new people
- Achieve their performing potential.

We'll be singing great music of all kinds – including Pop, Classical, Sacred, World Music, Gospel and Music Theatre.

A Fair Trade Café selling drinks and snacks will be open from 3.30pm and during the rehearsal break.

There's no formal charge to take part in Singchronicity, as it is funded by the Leith Church of Scotland churches and Leith Benevolent Association, but donations towards the costs of running the choir will always be welcome.
